From the Pastor's Desk...

Greetings children of God.

Mark 9: 30-32 – “They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, “The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.” But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.”

Why? Why were the disciples afraid to ask Jesus a question? No one knows but I bet we can all relate to some degree. Have you ever been scared to ask a question? Of course you have, at some point in our life we've all feared asking a question. For most of us this probably happened when we were in school. I know I did. I didn't want to seem stupid, like I was the only one who didn't get it, and I didn't want to be made fun of. I wish I understood then what I understand now, that questions are our friends.

And when it comes to our faith, questions are a good thing as they are a mark of perceptive curiosity. Questions don't mean we are unfaithful, as we admit that we don't know something, questions provide an opportunity for us to learn and grow in our faith. It's understandable that the disciples don't understand what Jesus is telling them as its mind blowing stuff. No one expected the Messiah to endure torturing, suffering and death via crucifixion, so the fact that they still don't get it after Jesus tells them for the second time is reasonable.

Many times, the same is true of us; we don't always grasp or understand the things Jesus says or asks and we don't fully comprehend the Kingdom of God as they are usually polar opposites of the world in which we live. If we don't understand how Jesus can be with us when we're hurting, we should ask questions. If we don't comprehend Jesus' sayings, we should ask questions. If we have doubts about God and Jesus, we should ask questions.

I'd like to invite you for the month of October and ultimately any time, to write down any question or questions you may have about your faith, God, Jesus or the Bible that you wonder about on a 3x5 card and place them in the offering plate during worship. This is an important step as Pastor Lose notes, "They must be placed in the offering plate because just as we give God our time, talents and money, we also gratefully give God our questions, challenges and doubts."

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Tim

OUR CONGREGATIONAL MEETING – is set for October 17th, 2021. Please note it will take place between the 8 and 10:30 a.m. services. At this point it will be an in person meeting only.

WORSHIP AT SPRING CREEK NURSING HOME AND REHABILITATION CENTER (EDEN SPRINGS) – We are blessed to be able, after a long absence, to have the opportunity to again lead worship and bring Jesus to people who would not otherwise be able to worship this amazing God of ours, during the month of October. (Sundays, the 3rd, 10th, 17th, 24th, and 31st. What a joy for those of us who offer this ministry and those who receive. Because of Covid there are a couple of regulations in place for the protection of the patients that we need to be aware of. Masks are required! Sr. Sam much prefers that visitors be fully vaccinated and bring their vaccination cards so that copies can be made and kept on file. Or bring a copy that you can provide them. These folks are hungry to hear the Word of God again. Please prayerfully consider participating in this ministry. A true joy and blessing for all. Find the sign-up sheet on the bulletin board in the coat area. Questions? See Randy Brown, Yvonne Vogel or Noelle Leutenegger.

UPDATED TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES are now available in the Narthex.

THRIVENT REPRESENTATIVE, Jeremy Ashley, will be here, Sunday, October 24th, to talk to us between services and answer any questions we may have about Thrivent Choice Dollars and Thrivent Action Teams or any other concerns we have. Please plan to attend if interested.

ARE YOU LISTENING TO GOD? Do you ever listen to your body as we start a new day or a new week? I experienced this last week. I had been having discomfort in my chest at least 3-4 days prior. I had been trying to keep up my normal pace. Wednesday it came to a halt.

The school nurse where I volunteer finally got through to me. Stop! Go to the ER and get an EKG. The doctor wasn't happy with the results. Next thing I knew, I was told Life Flight would be there in 15 minutes. I had 2 blockages in my heart. They put a stint in (98-100% blockage on Wednesday and another on Friday for a 70-80% blockage). I returned home Saturday late afternoon. I didn't have any arm pain, chest pain or jaw pain! I felt things were terribly wrong – listened. I AM ALIVE!

PICTORIAL DIRECTORIES ARE HERE! If you had your picture taken for it or submitted a photo, there is a copy with your name on it (literally), in alphabetical order in a box on the table in the Narthex. If you did not have your picture taken or submitted, we have a limited supply of extra copies that are available by seeing Barb in the office. Please do not take someone's copy with their name on it – Thank You! The app will be available in the near future to download if you wish. More information to come.

YOU WERE SEEN CARDS

The Mission & Outreach committee has begun a new program for our church members to reach out to others with love, generosity, and encouragement – the You Were Seen Movement.

The heart of this movement is a small card – it can accompany your tip when appropriate or be given to someone with a few words of thankfulness for a job well done or just to let them know they handled a situation nicely in the moment. They were seen. This is done to let them know they were seen as God always does and He always loves them...to encourage them in their performing of their job... to let them know they matter to us and to God. The card leads people to a website where they are given information about the God who sees them everyday, is for them, and loves them.

This movement is about kindness, and gratitude. It's about being generous... every time you leave your house. And it is about pointing people to Jesus. This is a movement begun in 2019 by the author, Karen Kingsbury, whose books we have in our church library.

On each card there is a website, and a 24/7 prayer line available by calling an 800 number. I know it works because I called it and what a difference it made that day! I know, it will work again when I call. If you cannot find the cards ...ask – if you have questions about the card's use ... ask – if the basket is empty...ask. We hope you start spreading God's love with your actions as a Christian witness for Him.
Yvonne Vogel

P.S. Here are a couple true stories from those who have used or received the cards and reported it to the website.

Sharon L., Pennsylvania

I never knew how to share hope with a stranger until now. These cards rock.

AND

Larry T., Florida

Someone cared enough to give me a You Were Seen card. The tip was more than the bill. I didn't know Christians could love like this.

More stories to follow in the November newsletter.

DAILY REMINDERS OF BAPTISM

One way Satan attacks Christians is by reminding us of our sins, both of commission (wrongdoing) and omission (neglecting to do right). And one way we can fight back is by remembering our baptism. The reformer Martin Luther recommended pondering that sacrament daily, whenever we wash our face, because “in baptism sins are drowned.”

Getting dressed can serve as another frequent reminder, Luther says, because baptism is the “daily garment ... the Christian is to wear all the time.” He writes, “Christ instituted holy baptism ... to clothe you with his righteousness. It is tantamount to his saying, ‘My righteousness shall be your righteousness; my innocence, your innocence. Your sins indeed are great, but by baptism I bestow on you my righteousness; I strip death from you and clothe you with my life.’”

GOING TO EXTREMES

When a herd of elephants ventured into a town in eastern India, people chased them away. But soon they learned that a baby elephant had fallen into a 30-foot well and been left behind. Workers had to use three backhoes to free the calf, breaking down the brick well and digging a sloping trench for the youngster to walk out on.

Righting a wrong — and even saving a life — may require extreme measures. A structure holding someone captive may need to be torn down. And in many cases, it’s better to allow the trapped one as much independence and agency as possible. Rather than hoisting the elephant out vertically, which might have been dangerous and traumatic, helpers made a path so it could take part in attaining its freedom.

God often works like this, restoring and equipping us to partner with him. How can we assist others while granting them the dignity of being part of the solution?

—Heidi Hyland Mann

TWENTY-THIRD PSALM FOR BUSY PEOPLE

*The Lord is my pacesetter, I shall not rush,
He makes me stop and rest for quiet interval
He provides me with images of stillness
that restore my serenity,
He leads me in ways of efficiency,
through calmness of mind,
And His guidance is peace.
Even though I have a great many things
to accomplish this day,
I will not fret, for His presence is here,
His timelessness, His all-importance
will keep me in balance.
He prepares refreshment and renewal
in the midst of my activity
My cup of joyous energy overflows.
Surely harmony and effectiveness
shall be the fruits of my hours,
For I shall walk in the pace of my Lord,
And dwell in His house forever.*

TIME TO HIT DELETE?

If we really have too much to do, there are some items on the agenda that God did not put there. Let us submit the list to him and ask him to indicate which items we must delete. There is always time to do the will of God. If we are too busy to do that, we are too busy.

—Elisabeth Eliot

WHAT GOD IS LIKE

Before her death in 2019, Rachel Held Evans started writing a book with her young children in mind. The goal was to help them explore images for God, who is love. What Is God Like? (co-authored by Matthew Turner) acknowledges, “That’s a very big question, one that people from places all around the world have wondered about since the beginning of time.” The book highlights such biblical images for God as an eagle, a shepherd, a fort, wind, an artist, a “strong and safe” mother, and a “gentle and safe” father.

Just as Evans remained open to questions as a means to grow in faith, her book concludes: “Keep searching. Keep wondering. ... But whenever you aren’t sure what God is like, think about what makes you feel safe ... brave ... loved. That’s what God is like.” What images for God come to your mind? Indeed, what is God like — for you?
